

The FCC should not implement
any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

My family has been greatly enhanced since we do not have to interrupt family time to answer the phone for unsolicited calls.

I will be very unhappy if our federal government takes away my family's right and freedom to pursue happiness in this manner and will vote accordingly.